DEFINITIONS

Carriage: The operations and services undertaken or performed by or on behalf of Carrier as Seasole Container Lines Inc. contained in this Bill of Lading, including the transportation of the Goods by sea, land and air, including any related services, such as, but not limited to, loading, unloading, warehousing, transshipment, train services, truck transportation and storage.

Goods: Any commodities, including, but not limited to, cargo, merchandise, goods, wares, supplies, materials, stores, packages, containers, and any other description of articles, and includes all articles which may be loaded on any vessel and embarked aboard the same, whether or not stipulated on this Bill of Lading (including all those that have or may be received in transit for the completion of the carriage).

Risks: Any peril, circumstance or event, whether or not including the acts of God, the public enemy, war or any other cause, which results in the direct or indirect loss, damage, destruction, delay, or expense in any wise incurred in connection with the Goods for which Carrier is responsible.

Liability: This underwriting being carried by the carrier for named herein. The carrier hereby agrees to hold harmless the shipper, consignee, or any other person from and against any loss, damage, claim, expense, cost, penalty, or any other liability incurred in the carriage or storage of the Goods.

CARRIAGE OF GOODS: Clause (A) Merchant agrees to forwards the Goods to Carrier, Merchant acknowledges that anything done or not done in accordance with the above sub-clause (D) shall be deemed to be done or not done for the benefit of the Goods under which the Goods are covered.

(b) The carrier is not responsible for any loss, damage, expense, or costs, including any court costs, interest, expenses, and attorneys' fees, Carrier pays or incurs in or arising out of any claim or liability for which Carrier is not responsible. Any such claim or liability for which Carrier is not responsible, including any court costs, interest, expenses, and attorneys' fees, the claim will only be abandoned if the Goods are delivered to the claimant or Carrier or Carrier's agent, or Carrier's or any other authorized representative of Carrier is required to take any steps to reclaim the Goods or to pay the Goods to the appropriate person or entity.