Dear Western Overseas Partner:

Re: Security Expectation Letter

CTPAT™ YOUR SUPPLY CHAIN'S STRONGEST LINK.

As a certified Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism (CTPAT) partner Western Overseas Corporation (WOC) works with the U.S. Customs and Border Protection Service (CBP) to help secure the global supply chain and to enhance border security. Part of the WOC security program requires that we develop and maintain information relating to the security policies and procedures of our clients and business partners. As a voluntary participant within the CTPAT program, we take our commitment to the principles of the CTPAT program seriously. We anticipate that your company will be willing to comply with CTPAT guidelines that the U.S. Customs Service has published.
For further information regarding these criteria, CTPAT participants can review the "Document Exchange" portion of the CTPAT secure portal. Non-participants may obtain a copy of this information by emailing ctpat@westernoverseas.com. Feel free to contact us with any questions. The security guidelines can be found at: https://www.cbp.gov/border-security/ports-entry/cargo-security/ctpat. Complete the following, sign and return to WOC.
